National Finances.

The receipts of the Treasury daily are more than ever known before within the memory of the fiscal department. The amount averages over a million and a half a day, and were it not for the special appropriations made by Congress for private claims, deficiencies, etc., which are now pouring in, the debt reduction for the month would be perhaps, the largest in the history of the last twenty years. The receipts for the month will amount to nearly $50,000,000 beyond a doubt. From this there is to be taken as one item $9,500,000 for pensions alone, besides the current expenses and special warrants above mentioned. Ever since Congress adjourned, on the 8th of the month, there have been 240 to 300 of these claims under the deficiency bills and private acts put through each day, and from this source it is estimated the disbursements will not fall much short of a million a day. This class of drafts on the Treasury will fall off soon in number, however, always running along for about a month after Congress adjourns by which time almost every claim provided for in the appropriation bill is presented. While the debt reduction may not be so great this month as would naturally be expected, from the extraordinary receipts, it is not unlikely that next month's surplus will require another call for three-and-a-half per cent bonds to dispose of it.

The Utah Commission.

A Salt Lake dispatch of the 21st reads as follows: At their meeting to-day the Utah Commissioners adopted the old registration list, which they propose revising and holding an election in November for Delegate to Congress. The old list contains the names of male and female polygamists, and as the Edmunds bill does not give the Commissioners power to erase the names from the registers, it is thought by many that the first act of the Commissioners is a serious blunder.

Senator Hill's Successor.

The man most talked of as Senator Hill's successor is ex-Senator Gordon, who resigned sometime since in order to engage in a money-making enterprise. His railroad and mining speculations resulted fortunately, and he will come back to the Senate, if elected, a very wealthy man. There is a strong feeling, however, in favor of Alexander H. Stephens, and should he be elected to the Governorship of Georgia no doubt he will be an important and formidable candidate.

A letter from Washington to the JOURNAL says Senator Jones has been grossly misrepresented on the great question of monopoly and anti-monopoly, as published in the New York Mail and Express. The Senator feels very indignant over it, and says he was simply talked to by some unknown boy, and never made any such statements.

The Enterprise says the only man with a sack seen thus far on the Comstock is the rag-picking Chinaman who wields a gunny sack.

James G. Blaine, of Maine, is on the list of Republican speakers for the approaching political campaign in California and Nevada.

For Secretary of State.

It has been stated quite generally that John M. Dorrer, of the Candelaria True Fissure, is a candidate for State Printer on the Republican ticket, but this was a mistake. A letter from Mr. Dorrer himself, received this morning, states in positive terms, that he is not an aspirant for the office of State Printer, but for Secretary of State. Mr. Dorrer is a gentleman of undoubted ability and integrity, and would make a first-class Secretary of State, possessing all the necessary backbone and good judgment to carry him through to the satisfaction of his constituents and all concerned. [Austin Reveille.]

The Democratic organ insists that the Chinese Restriction bill is a Democratic measure, because it could not have been passed without the aid of Democratic votes. Neither could the River and Harbor Appropriation bill have been passed without the aid of Democratic votes. More Democrats than Republicans voted to pass the latter bill over the veto. If the Democrats insist that the Chinese bill was a Democratic measure, they must concede that the River and Harbor bill was also a Democratic measure. If they claim the latter as a Republican measure they must admit the Chinese bill to be a Republican measure. They stigmatize the River and Harbor bill as a piece of Republican extravagance, yet claim the credit for a meritorious law passed under exactly the same circumstances. This is an average sample of Democratic fairness and consistency. [S. F. Post.]

There ought to be no ill humor in the Republican ranks between this and the November election, and our party leaders should do all that is possible to allay dissension and unite the greatest possible popular vote in this county for the ticket. [Carson Index.]

RIDING DOWN A FLUME.

A Daring Descent from the Mountains to the Valley—An Experience Full of Peril.

Those who have ever experienced the delightful sensation of riding down a V flume in this State will enjoy reading the following interesting account given by the Chico Record of a ride in the flume of the Sierra Lumber Co. at that place. It says:

Ed. Falconer formerly railroad station agent at Durham, now working in the mills at Smoky Flat, came to Chico yesterday in the flume. He started from the mountains about 7 o'clock in the morning, when the atmosphere was cold and crisp, with nearly everything covered with frost, making one wish for an overcoat. He mounted a raft and shoved off, and did not stop until he had reached a warm and sunny station along the watery ride. Travelling in the flume is dangerous and exciting sport. One is sometimes gliding smoothly along on level water, and then is suddenly dashed forward on a down-grade at an almost lightning speed, with the boat or raft riding at a seeming angle of forty-five degrees. Along the flume, through the canyons and over gorges can be seen some of the most picturesque scenery of the Sierras, which would make the heart of true artist leap with joy. Very few accidents have ever occurred on the Sierra Lumber Company's flume, but if there should be a break at some of the high places, a person riding along would suddenly be dashed into 'kingdom come.' Riding down the flume has a striking similarity to sliding down a hill on a sled—it is fun to shoot downward with a tremendous velocity, but difficult to ascend. The boat that was once made by our citizens whereby a person could ride up the flume, has doubtless proved a failure, as we never hear any more of it. It was the hope of the inventor to have his craft ascend the flume by aid of the water passing against paddles like those of a river boat. Large quantities of lumber are now being floated from the mountains daily, and a person riding in the flume encounters great danger of being run into by floating timbers. Men are employed to watch and work along the flume the same as workmen on a railroad. Their duty is to keep the passage-way clear and break up lumber collisions. They have sections to work and can always be seen moving along the sidewalk on the flume. Very few persons are allowed to ride in the flume, and it is only by hard efforts that the mill hands can get permission to make the trip to Chico. Boxes of trout are sent down from the tourists to their friends in the valley, and a few years ago this wonderful forty-mile length of flume was used as a sort of message-carrier, in bringing down orders for supplies and calls for physicians, the messages being written on a board or nailed up in a small box. But now, since we are connected with the mountains by telephone, the custom of message-riding by water has gone up the flume.

THE MINING EXPOSITION.

A Mass of Horn Silver Weighing 10,000 POUNDS.

DENVER, August 21.—Quite a stir was created to-day by a telegram from Nutt, N. M., stating that the manager of the Sierra Grande mine had a mass of horn silver weighing 10,000 pounds and valued at over $60,000, taken from the mine yesterday, which he desired to send here, if the masses previously sent were smaller than this. He was instructed to send it. Three or four additional pulverizers were added to the running machines to-day, and ore grinding is now going on daily by half a dozen processes. A water-jacket smelter arrived to-day, and will be erected outside the building and placed in operation. Several large consignments of ore also arrived for the different exhibits. The stamp mills, pulverizers, amalgamating process, concentrators, compressors, rock drills, hoisting machines, pumps, smelters and other mining machinery now here, with the ores of all kinds and grades, render the Exposition of far greater value and importance to the mining interests of the country than any similar exposition before known. Its attractiveness grows daily, and announcements have been received of large excursions coming from beyond the Mississippi. Hon. J. D. Kelley of Pennsylvania will deliver an address upon pertinent topics in the Exposition building Thursday evening.

A Wild Woman in Missouri.

A nude colored woman, with a gorilla, is startling the people of the Marvell section, twenty miles out on the Midland Railroad. She has been seen several times, and the last time threw a young lady who was horseback riding into hysteria, and with a grunt, not unlike that of a wild hog, jumped up and ran into the forest. At the time of her discovery she was burrowing into the side of the road, catching and eating crawfish, which she ate claws, hile and all. As yet nothing can be ascertained as to her identity, but steps will soon be taken to that end. She is very black, and foams at the mouth when angry, like a wild animal at bay. [Globe-Democrat.]

How Cassidy must have laughed in his sleeve when he wrote the following statement to Congress:

And now, Mr. Speaker, there is a fair and logical deduction to be drawn from this recital of historical facts. Seven out of the eight Senatorial elections were uncontested, while the eighth was between poor men, unable to corrupt any one, if disposed to do so, which I decline to believe. It is thus shown to the satisfaction of all fair men, let me hope, that there has never been occasion or motive for the corrupt use of money in the Senatorial elections of Nevada. Every imputation of this character, therefore, is a gross and palpable libel on the fair name of the State and its people, and as such I most emphatically characterize it. [Carson Index.]

SENATOR MILLER'S VIEWS.

He Talks About Presidential Votes and Politics.

New York, August 22.—The Tribune prints an interview with Senator Miller of California, in which he speaks as follows of President Arthur: "My intercourse with him has been very pleasant indeed. He has not always done what I asked him, but I am not disposed to quarrel with a President on that account. I think that Arthur is a very thorough and a very able man."

"You mean as a politician?"

"Not entirely, though it is no mean qualification to be a thorough politician. I do not know that it is best that a President should be a good politician, for he is then apt to be a partisan."

"What do you think of his veto of the River and Harbor bill?"

"That was an act not calculated to injure him much in public estimation. In any part of the country, for instance, which needed improvements, his opposition having been overcome, will soon be forgotten and forgiven. In this and other States which opposed the bill his veto won him many staunch friends, so he has pleased many and offended but few, and has still the money to spend and the patronage under the bill to dispense."

"Well, coming nearer home, how do you like his veto of the Chinese bill?"

"Not so well; but no harm has been done politically, I think, in my State."

"Can the Republicans carry the State?"

"It will be a very close contest, but I think we can carry it if we nominate a good ticket."

POLITICAL PROGNOSTICATIONS.

[S. F. Bulletin.]

The next House will consist of 325 members—32 more than the present House contains. The increase is in the valley of the Mississippi. One member of the new body has already been elected—George (Rep.) of Oregon. The remainder, with the exception of Maine, which will elect next Spring, and Mississippi, which will elect in the Fall of 1883, will be chosen on the 7th of next November. The seats of twenty-five Senators will be vacant on the 4th of March, 1883. The Legislatures which will fill most of them will be elected in November. Thirteen of the vacant seats belong to the South. It is possible for the Forty-eighth Congress, whose sessions will commence on the first Monday of December, 1883, to be controlled absolutely by either one party or the other. The present Congress can only be said to be nominally Republican. A Republican measure can go through when Senator David Davis is with it.

None of the great questions now pending are likely to be decided by the present Congress. It has only a short session before it. It will reassemble on the first Monday in December next and expire by limitation on March 4th. When the Christmas holidays are subtracted there are only a couple of months for work. The Tariff Commission will hand in its report, but it is not probable that action can be taken on it. The interests which will have to be reconciled are too many and conflicting to render an adjustment probable. Under this view the tariff and kindred questions will have to go over to the next Congress. That body will, therefore, be likely to cut quite a figure in our history. It will come on the scene just at the moment that many important problems are ripe for solution. The Congress which precedes a Presidential election, besides, is usually very active in this line of operations, for its chief business is to manufacture issues for the great quadrennial struggle.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

PERSONALS.

A. H. Manning and family are at Lake Tahoe.

Miss Alice Tobriner, of Carson, is here on a visit.

M. Lippman, formerly of Reno, is now at Denver.

Congressman Cassidy arrived in Eureka yesterday.

Wm. McPherson was up from Wadsworth yesterday.

Capt. Mathewson, Internal Revenue Collector, is in town.

Mrs. J. F. Platter has returned to Reno on a brief visit.

M. Radovich, partner of E. Chielovich, was in town yesterday.

Alvaro Evans has gone out East to inspect the "fences" of that section.

General R. M. Clarke from Carson is sojourning in town at the Lake House.

H. W. Bragg, of Oakland, brother of C. A. Bragg, of Reno, is here on a visit.

W. R. Chamberlain left last evening, on a short business trip to San Francisco.

A. Strassburger, a former Reno merchant, but now of San Francisco, was in town yesterday.

R. P. Chapin is seriously ill with a sudden attack of bilious fever, and is under Dr. Hogan's treatment.

W. H. Dickens has bought out the interest of his partner, M. Harrison, in the firm of W. H. Dickens & Co.

Tommy Fehill, of Virginia, seems to be growing fonder and fonder of Reno after each visit, and is down here again on another trip.

J. T. Williams, Sheriff of Douglas county, who was lately stabbed severely by Jerry Baycraft, arrived in town last night, bringing a patient for Hotel de Dawson.

Hon. H. F. Page, Congressman from the 2d Cal. District, passed west last night. Mr. Page will be re-nominated and re-elected. He is now serving his fifth term.

It is rumored that Will J. Gillespie will take his departure between now and the first of September, to accept a position as clerk in the Chico Hotel, Chico, Cal.

Attorney General Murphy came down from Carson last night to place his daughter, Miss Lizzie, at the "School For Girls." The General and his wife will remain in town until the afternoon train to-day.

Frank Sharon, H. Thrall and wife, C. Thurston, D. C. Martin, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Hammond and son, Misses Beattie and Jessie Finlayson and Mrs. Robert Turner, returned to Reno yesterday from their trip to the lakes.

The County Bridge Examined.

M. J. Smith, accompanied by a Journal reporter, made a thorough preliminary examination of the county bridge across the Truckee. He examined the stringers underneath, and carefully tested each pair of suspender straps. While no nuts were missing, he found a curious condition to exist. While on the east side the suspenders are firm and tight, those on the west side are only half so, the west leg of the straps, which are bifurcated, being all loose, the east leg bearing the entire weight on the bolts. Mr. Smith will spend a couple of days to a thorough overhauling of the structure, the worst part of the job being to tighten the nuts underneath the roadway, it being most difficult for a man to navigate in such close quarters. Still, as the river is very low, the difficulty will not be so great as at a time of high water.

A Sleeper Disturbed.

TRUCKEE, Aug. 21.—A young tramp giving the name of Styles, who came to this place a short time since from the East, last night stole into the round-house and there fell asleep. Early this morning piercing screams were heard by the watchman of the house, who upon investigation, found that Styles had in his sleep extended his body so that one of his feet resting on the rail had been caught by a running locomotive and the foot entirely severed from the foot leaving the bones perfectly bare and uninjured.

A Curious Fact.

A party of swimmers took a trip up the river last night to a jay moonlight dip. But the enjoyment failed to be appreciated, owing to the coldness of the water and the keen wind blowing. It certainly looks strange that the water should be colder at nine or ten o'clock of an evening than during the day; for at about that hour the water from the lake and up the river, that has been exposed to all day's sun, just about reaches Reno. Still, such is the fact.

The Sunday School Excursion—A Splendid Success.

One of the pleasantest affairs in the excursion line came off yesterday, and will be long remembered by the participants. Long before the time for the train to start crowds of youngsters, some going it alone on their own hook and others accompanied by their parents, but all bearing in their faces evidence of the fun they anticipated, piled in platoons on the railroad platforms and into the cars, which were soon converted into a Babel sufficient to drive a bachelor stock mad. There was a large number of Reno's young ladies with their escorts, with only one disappointment in mind to harass them, and that was the unfortunate absence of about a hundred long and dark tunnels between Reno and Steamboat.

THE START.

Was not made before half-past eight as intended, owing to having to add a C. P. coach to accommodate the great throng; and with fine coaches of human freight, sixty to a coach, the train swiftly started on its way to Steamboat. It was delightful to watch the faces and hear the cries of delight from scores of children, many of whom were taking their first picnic ride. Steamboat was soon reached and the excursionists were safely deposited in the fatherly care of CHARLEY MOELLER.

All the usual sports, games and varied occupations of a picnic were indulged in during the day, winding up with a dance, without a single accident or serious incident to mar the pleasure of the occasion; and after a day of friendly enjoyment the train returned home, arriving about half past six. Everybody joins in praising the excursion and its management, and officers who attended declare they never saw a quieter, happier, or more orderly set of picnickers in their experience. This is high praise and the success of this trip will undoubtedly cause a repetition at some near future day.

A Canine Sell.

Yesterday morning several parties were standing in front of the postoffice, when one of them, seeing the flags over the Depot Hotel at half mast, asked his companions the reason the big flag was flying thus.

"Why," answered Jamison, "haven't you heard the news? Harry Clawson's dog is dead, and his sorrow must find expression."

"But," queried a man named Blum, "see those other two little flags at half mast; what are they for?"

"Why," said old man Hoffman, "those are for two of de pups who died last night of colic, poor little dogs."

The explanation satisfied the questioner, and in about an hour it was circulated throughout town that three of Clawson's dogs had kicked the bucket, and left him disconsolate. As a result, a string of visitors happened along all day, anxious to see the dogs and learn of the cause of their demise. Upon discovering the sell they started off to fool others in order to get even, and now a hundred men are on the warpath after the man who first started the joke.

What Is the Remedy?

It is believed here that several persons at Pyramid lake are fishing with giant powder, not only an illegal procedure, but a most dastardly and unsportsmanlike one. Still the pot-hunters who use this method can never be suspected of being sportsmen. Several fish have been seen here lately bearing the usual signs of having been killed by giant powder, which renders the flesh of the fish soft, pulpy and flabby, entirely destroying the firmness of the meat, which is one of the prime requisites in a fine fish. It is needless to reiterate the cruelty and wastefulness of using the powder, which kills and stuns many more than the powder used can secure, the balance floating away dead to rot on the shores of the lake. Where is the Fish Commissioner? For there are many abuses taking place every day along the Truckee and at both lakes.

For County Clerk.

John F. Myers announces himself a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Myers possesses all the necessary qualifications to make a first-class Clerk. He made an excellent record for himself as Minute Clerk of the last State Senate. His Republicanism is unquestioned, and should the Convention honor him with the nomination, a large number of personal friends would actively exert themselves in his behalf, and a number of friends, not of his political faith, would also put their shoulder to the wheel.

Prison Work.

Warden Garrard intends to make a good display of boots and shoes of prison manufacture; also samples of work by the prison stove entera, at the coming Fair. The exhibition is not made for the purpose of competing for a prize, but simply to show taxpayers what is being done at the penitentiary.

BREVITIES.

Patronize the White Laundry.

Plenty of fruit of all kinds in the market.

No Grand Jurors' names have, as yet, been drawn.

The Reno band is at work on campaign music.

The Daily Journal is only one bit a week, delivered by carrier.

Chas. Malby has purchased Ed. Bates' ranch on the south side of the river.

An active young man can secure a situation by applying to this office. See 50-cent column.

There is a letter held for postage in the Virginia postoffice addressed to George Alt, Reno.

The Depot Hotel flags were placed at half-mast yesterday as a token of respect to the late B. B. Redding.

Chase & Thyes have a new drink, dubbed "candidates." It is a mixture of a little of everything, and is very smooth.

The Fall term of Bishop Whitaker's "School for Girls" commences to-day. Mt. St. Mary's Academy will open next Monday.

Lonky & Smith commenced the work of rebuilding last Monday at Verdi, and the planing mill will soon be in operation again.

The Reno canines have decided to hold a convention, and decide whether it is best to tar and feather Jim Townsend's thoroughbred.

Some twelve or fifteen cattle, of a lot being shipped from Winnemucca to San Francisco, died on the cars and were dumped off at Wadsworth a few days ago.

Ground will be broken to-day for the new shops at Wadsworth. It is estimated that nearly a million of brick will be necessary, of which the major portion will be furnished by Frank Cutts, of Reno.

C. C. Stevenson, in order to encourage competition in pigs, offers a special premium of $10 for the best Berkshire (boar and son) exhibited at the Fair; also $10 for the best pair of pigs of any age or breed.

In the fierce struggle for existence which most of us are called to engage in, good health is of utmost moment. Therefore it behooves all to have a good silver Waltham watch; such a one as you can purchase for $10 of Uncle Harry's, 221 Kearney St.

The N. & O. folks will not receive any more rails until the 2d of next month. The road will certainly be completed to the Summit some time next month, when the Reno division will commence operations. Glad that this division will be in good running order by Fair time.

The Reno Baths.

The beautiful moonlight nights are attracting many bathers to the Truckee River after the extreme heat of the day. Last evening at about eight o'clock quite a number of bathers in costume were enjoying themselves up at the swimming grounds on this side of the river and above the Ayers wood boom on the other side. The beautiful moonlight night and the unusual warmth of the water made the boys enjoy themselves hugely.

Hon. Jasper Babcock has gone to the Great East on a political prospecting tour. Meanwhile a Dorner window is being built on to the Capitol for the convenience of the next Administration. —Carson Index.

The name of Judge Bishop will not be presented. He is not in the field for any position. The Eureka delegation will probably vote for Kinkead on the first ballot, and there is no telling who they will go for after it. —Eureka Leader.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, and has won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effective cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not keep it from the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
